STEVE ANSELM, the bar-keeper, has opened a fine saloon in Louis Blatteau's old stand, where can be found, at all times, Steve serving his customers with the best of drinkables. 11-224f.

PREPARE FOR CHRISTMAS.—Now and elegant jewelry, appropriate for Christmas gifts, may be found at Butler Brothers. 11-221f.

TO ANY of our friends who desire a first-class article in the line of boots, shoes or gaiters, made to order, of the best stock, in any style or pattern desired, we would say try Wm Ehler's before going elsewhere. 10-191f.

A FULL line of China Christmas toys at Daniel Hartman's. 12-111f.

THE St. Louis bell treble pianos are as durable as any piano in the market, and the sweetest-toned that you ever listened to. N. P. CURTICE, Agent. Conservatory, cor. Twelfth & Wash. 11-224f.

MR. GEO. STEINHOUSE, barber and hair dresser, corner of Eighth street and Commercial avenue, desires to call the attention of the bearded community to his newly arranged saloon, and the fact that he is master of his profession in all its branches. He has boarded many a lion in his den, and calls for more. 11-221f.

NOTICE.—The public is hereby notified that bodies of dead horses or other animals, must not be placed unburied outside the levee, under penalty of arrest and fine. Bodies of dead horses, hogs, etc., must either be buried or thrown into the river. 12-14-61. A. CAIS, City Marshal.

Mrs. ANNA LANG, Eighth street between Commercial and Washington avenues, has just received a large and varied stock of fall goods, and desires to call particular attention to her handsome assortment of ladies and children's underwear, something new in this market. Her woolen drawers and leggins combined are also something new and the most comfortable thing for children in cold weather ever devised. Mrs. Lang also has a well selected assortment of hats, bonnets, ribbons, flowers, and notions of all sorts, all of which will be sold as cheap as can be found elsewhere in this market. 10-9-1m.

LADIES and gentlemen's kid gloves in all colors from 75cts. to $1 per pair. Call and examine the two button wrist kid gloves before purchasing elsewhere, at Hartman's. 12-111f.

LOUIS BLATTEAU, whom everybody knows, and who is the friend of everybody, is now fully installed in his new quarters, on Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues. He offers to the public the best St. Louis beer, the choicest brands of wine and the purest liquors to be found in the city, and hopes that these, civil treatment and a cordial reception, will insure to him a generous share of public patronage. Come and see Louis in his new home. He has a welcome for everybody, and for you, reader, a cordial one. 11-221f.

GOOD NEWS.—One of the largest and most complete stock of custom-made boots and shoes ever brought to this market, has just been received by Messrs. Hardy & Greenwood, No. 105 Commercial ave. These gentlemen are both practical workmen in the boot and shoe business; have had a larger experience, and cannot be deceived into purchasing anything but the very best stock.

They employ a number of first-class workmen at their establishment, and are manufacturing EVERY VARIETY AND STYLE of Ladies and Misses' shoes and gaiters at St. Louis prices, and guarantee satisfaction. They make these a specialty. They also make to order all kinds of fine calf, kip or leather boots, in style and price that defies competition, either in Cairo or in the West. All goods warranted to be as represented. 11-224f.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING.—Buder Brothers have made elaborate preparations for Christmas in the way of filling their handsome store room with new and elegant jewelry, gold and silver watches, plated and silver ware of the newest patterns, and a fine stock of pianos, organs and other musical instruments. A look through Buder Brother's stock will leave no one at a loss in the selection of a Christmas present for the friend. Every article in their line is placed before the purchaser, and he can select an elegant and appropriate Christmas present for a big friend or a little one, male or female, wife, daughter, sister or sweet-heart, at a price suited to his purse and inclination. The Buder extend a cordial invitation to the public to call and examine their Christmas stock. 11-28-4f.

ELECTION NOTICE.—The annual meeting of the stock-holders of the City National Bank for the election of seven directors will be held at the Bank, Tuesday, January 14, 1873. Polls open from 10 o'clock a.m. to 2 o'clock p.m.

A. B. Safford, Cashier. 12-10-41.

CHILDREN'S white furs for $2.50 per pair at Hartman's. 12-111f.

HOME AGAIN.—Mr. Goldstone, of the firm of Goldstone & Rosenwasser, has returned home from New York, where he has been making large purchases of winter dry goods, clothing, etc. Luckily, Mr. Goldstone had completed all his purchases before the Boston fire, and therefore before the late advance in prices. Messrs. Goldstone & Rosenwasser can, consequently, sell at prices exceedingly below those now current in this market. They ask the public to call and inspect their goods and ascertain their prices, being satisfied that no one will go away from the store, leaving behind them the bargain this firm are prepared to offer. 11-221f.

THE "THALIA."

A SINNER'S ADVICE.

Be wise, and repair to the "Thalia" saloon. Where citizens gather, morn, even, and noon. 'Tis there you get Oysters and Turkeys and Champagne.

In every style desired—also, sugar cured Hams. Oh, as for the Drink!—they're superior and fine—

No longer potato-bug broth, I am sure, But genuine Liquor, as mild as May. Warm up in just right and enjoy your day.

"Our" Jaekel will brew you a capital Punch. Or draw you a glass of prime Lager for Lunch. Each morn' you'll find there a bountiful spread, Roast and boiled, hot soup, with excellent bread.

Of all Cairo's saloons, the "Thalia's" stand! No drunkards or rowdies are bobbing around, No "proppers" or gamblers are there to be found. So be true to Jaekel's for Oysters and "Gin."

And if he don't suit you, then call on a witch. The mocking bird tunes up his whistle to wile, Your musical taste in a wonderful style: Geraniums and hyacinths, there may be found. The windows, adorned with beautiful green How few are the cooks that can properly stew.

The delicious bivalves, which you know to be true. But A Jaekel has got the whole science sew, broil or potage—he is "boss" of the art. On Washington avenue, corner of Twelfth.

In fact, you can drink a friend's health. There, too, you can read all the news of the day. And moderate the charges he asks you to pay.

Old Christmas is coming, and then you'll find The patrons of "Thalia" are not lost to mind. He will show you a sample of what he can do.

A Jaekel's a Brick—a thorough "True Blue." CAIRO, December 7, 1872.

FOR SALE.—My residence and two lots on Eighth street between Walnut and Cedar street. For further information apply to B. F. FIELDS, at Fields' stable, Tenth street between Washington avenue and Walnut street. 12-10-41.

HOLIDAY PRESENTS.

At W. B. Beckwith & Co., consisting in part of elegantly bound books, historical, biographical, political, juvenile and miscellaneous; writing desks, work boxes, dressing cases, card cases, cigar stands, gold pens, albums, chromos, photographs, engravings, lithographs, handkerchief boxes, glove boxes, toilet boxes, bibles, prayer books, hymnals, games, pocket books, pocket diaries for 1873, writing paper, guitars, violins, accordions, stereoscopes, stereoscopic views, besides many other articles too numerous to mention, all of which are offered for sale at reasonable rates. 12-10-24f.

ATTENTION.

Received daily by express at Winter's grocery in Winter's block, the following goods kept in ice: Fresh white fish, salmon, bass and perch; fresh oysters, direct from Baltimore, by the can at 40c to families, warranted good; also New York sound's, by the quart; clam and fresh lobsters; squids, ducks and other game, celery and fresh Ohio butter, always on hand; also all kinds of vegetables and fancy groceries, sliced ham, etc., besides a variety of other articles, including oranges and lemons, all of which will be sold at a fair living profit. 10-19-4f.

WINTER BOOTS AND SHOES.

Railroad men, farmers, draymen and all others whose business lays out of doors, and who for the preservation of health and good temper ought to wear good, heavy water-proof boots, can get just what they want by calling on Wm. Ehler's. He makes French calf or kip boots, warranted to fit well, wear well and give general satisfaction. 10-29-4f.

A HAPPY FAMILY.—We have often heard the remark that if you want good sweet bread in the family, you must have a good-matured and even-tempered cook to make it. As an additional air, we would recommend the unrivaled Charter Oak Cooking Stove, which will insure the happy owner not only a well-cooked, palatable meal, but also a contented and cheerful wife.

YOU ARE TROUBLED WITH A BAD BRATH.—It annoys your friends as well as yourself. You would like to get rid of it, but scarcely know what means to adopt. We will tell you. Use the fragrant Soudont, it will cleanse and beautify your teeth, and leave your breath pure. 12-15-1wd&w.

THE world does not contain a medicinal preparation which has obtained a more widespread and deserved popularity than the Mexican Mustang Liniment. Since its introduction to public notice more than twenty years ago, it has been constantly used for every kind of disease or injury to man or beast which can be affected by a local application, and so far as its properties are aware, it has not failed in a single instance. After so long and successful a term of probation, who will have the hardihood to deny its pre-eminent claims to popular esteem. 11-28-4f.
